

Events will take place at one of 4 locations

The Colony Site - A; The colony site is up a hill to the left looking out into the bay. There are signs for the Society of the 17th Century to guide you. The location of several of the buildings found through the Archaeological investigation will be marked off as well and you may be able to catch a tour of the site.

The Chapel and Chapel House - B; Here you can find information about the events and there is an aid station. The lectures will take place in the Chapel as will some of the music performances. Also next door is the library where there will be a replica of the Virginia, and info about it from the group Maine's First Ship who is trying to build it.

The Tent - C; The tent is located behind the Chapel House and will house several events including the Taste of Sagadahoc, The Craft Fair and the Service on Sunday

Fort Popham - D; This grand civil war Fort will host the opening and closing ceremonies, some of our concerts, an historic postcard and photo exhibit set up, and some of our non-profit organizations set up with info about local events of interest.
